OBITUARIES

GENEVA CASHMAN MIRACLE

Geneva Cashman Miracle, 81, of Irvington, Ky., died Nov. 4, 2013, at Hardin, Ky.

She was survived by her husband Tom Miracle, three children: Jamie (Sherrill) Davis of Irvington, Maggie Miracle and T. (Lori) Miracle, both of Phoenix, Ariz., and Sherrill and Barbara (Jerry) Miracle, Corner Miracle, Ballet Miracle and Chiyo Batulidge, and her great-grandson William Burnett.

She was a member of the Irvington Baptist Church, a former member of the Irvington City Council for 18 years, retired from Talco Credit Union in Louisville, Ky., and was a devoted wife to her husband Tom.

There were no services.

Condolences may be expressed at www.melch.com.

KENNETH IRWIN VOWELS

He was a retired employee of Fort Knox. His other activities include: past part time pastor for the United Methodist Church and was also a District Lay leader for Elizabethtown District of the United Methodist Church.

He was an active member of the Jay Cee's; a judge of the Kentucky Junior Miss Pageant; and he was a Kentucky Colonel.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara McNutt Vowels; Kenneth Irwin Vowels, 76, of Vine Grove, Ky.; a step-son, Kenneth Troy Mink of Muncie, Ind.; a step-daughter, Deborah Mink of Louisville, Ky.; a son, Kenneth (Christy) Vowels of Carrollton, Ky.; and a step-granddaughter, Karlie Mink.

There were no services.

Condolences may be expressed at www.melch.com.

Patricia Fackler Greenwell

900-573-3539

Memorial Counselor

Tim Dixon

When Crisis Strikes... What To Do, When an illness, accident, or death hits someone you know.

Allidah Poole Hicks and Tom Dixon wrote their award-winning book, When Crisis Strikes... What To Do, When an illness, accident, or death hits someone you know.

Download a free chapter of their book and be there for them to share their grief.

Now is a time to reach out and show you caring might be a lifeline to them and add a sense of normalcy to their sadness.

When someone is grieving, there is no way to be perfect, yet most everyone else has left. Now is a time to reach out and be there.

Allidah Poole Hicks and Tom Dixon are the experts in simple, practical, and fun answers to the question, "What can I do to help?"

For more information about their book, visit www.nebfh.com.

Get a small gesture of kindness. Even on the worst day, knowing that someone is thinking about you can really lift your spirits. Send a little card, share a flower from your garden, or bring over a cup of coffee or a meal. Or, attend a game or go out for a cup of coffee or lunch. Or, attend a game or go out for a cup of coffee or lunch.

Be there for them to share their grief. If you can, reach out and show you have to be much.

And there are continues to be counted on. Looking forward to a regular walk and talk just might take some of the sting out of the grief.

Offer a listening ear. Be there for them to share a memory, to cry, to vent, and to ask some of the hard questions. "Why me?" "How can I go on?" You don't have to have the answers, just listen. Your caring might be a lifeline to them and add a sense of normalcy to their sadness.

Feeling that world has passed them by and feel very alone. Now is a perfect moment to make a difference to a grieving friend. If you can, reach out and show you care.

Some time together. Take grieving friends out for a cup of coffee or lunch. Or, attend a game or go for a walk together. Set up a regular time, perhaps weekly, that can be counted on. Making forward to a regular walk and talk just might take some of the sting out of the grief.

Set up a regular time, perhaps weekly, that can be counted on. Looking forward to a regular walk and talk just might take some of the sting out of the grief.

For more information about their book, visit www.nebfh.com.

Obituaries

Five tips for offering a helping hand after the funeral

Welcome New Readers!

Your cost only $28 a year in Meade, Breckinridge and Hardin counties or $35 a year for all others. Stop by the Messenger office at 138 Broadway and sign up or fill out the form below and mail to:

Meade County Messenger
P. O. Box 678, Brandenburg, KY 40108
To purchase by credit card, call (270) 422-2155 or 1-(877)-422-2155.

Subscription by Mail

NAME

ADDRESS

PHONE

AMOUNT INCLUDED

Patrick Fackler Greenwell

800-573-3539

Download a free chapter of their book and be there for them to share their grief.

Now is a time to reach out and show you caring might be a lifeline to them and add a sense of normalcy to their sadness.

When someone is grieving, there is no way to be perfect, yet most everyone else has left. Now is a time to reach out and be there.

Allidah Poole Hicks and Tom Dixon are the experts in simple, practical, and fun answers to the question, "What can I do to help?"

For more information about their book, visit www.nebfh.com.